

Ebby Award

Eliza Solender

Each year, Our Friends Place presents the Ebby Award to a deserving individual who has significantly contributed to the advancement of girls and young women in North Texas. Eliza Solender is our 2008 Ebby Award winner.

Eliza Solender, president of Solender/Hall, Inc., is one of those unique individuals who “walks the walk and talks the talk” when it comes to advancing women and girls. She does this as a volunteer leader, business woman, and philanthropist. She has inspired others to follow in her footsteps on both the local and national levels through her involvement with Commercial Real Estate Women, CREW Foundation, The Family Place, Healthy Start Program, Mental Health Association of Greater Dallas, Dallas Museum of Natural History, President’s Research Council at UT-Southwestern Medical Center, United Cerebral Palsy, Dallas Arboretum, Emerson College, Dallas Foundation, Dallas Assembly, Dallas Summit, Executive women of Dallas League of Women Voters, The Real Estate Council, North Texas Commercial Association of Realtors and Women Corporate Directors. Solender/Hall, Inc. is a commercial real estate and consulting company that specializes in assisting corporations and organizations buy, sell, lease, manage and finance commercial real estate.
